Certificate of Leadership Principles

1

Leading with Purpose

In this course, you will learn the criteria for making quality decisions to facilitate intentional living in all areas of your life. As you understand your purpose, you will be able to define the possibilities that God has set in your path and aid you in discerning between good intentions and God intentions. The effects of living on purpose will be stronger partnerships with others and keeping "MO" on your side.

2

The Emerging Innovative Leader

Leadership and innovation existed in the mind of God long before the first thought of it came to man and is as old as time itself. In the newly innovated Garden of Eden, the man, Adam, was created and instructed by the Lord to provide leadership to all the earth. Becoming an innovative leader is a process that requires certain skillsets. This course is designed to identify 12 skillsets or competencies of becoming an innovative leader.

Instructor: Dr. Darrell Parsons, DSL

Leadership & Transition

In the perpetual transitions of life, navigation can become challenging. Leadership & Transition will provide wisdom and skills to maintain confidence through cloudy days when the vision gets fuzzy. From developing a master strategy to implementing that strategy, even learning to manage change, the student will understand the transitional journey and experience exceptional results.

Instructor: Dr. Gerald Doggett

4

Going Beyond Through Prayer & Discipleship

In this course, we will examine the difference between being a disciple and discipleship. We will not only establish the ingredients, character, and make-up of a disciple, we will also look closely at how Jesus called, developed, and deployed disciples. This course will establish three ingredients: identify as a disciple, vision for disciple-making, and develop a discipleship-making ministry.

Instructor: Pastor Ray Petty, M. Div
15 weeks

5

The Ministry of Reconciliation

Team teaching at its best takes the student on a meaningful journey into the ministry of reconciliation, to which all believers are called. The student will come away with encouragement, a sharpened skill set, and transformational wisdom to move into fresh dimensions of God's grace. Panel discussions will expand each student's capacity for ministry excellence.
